

Pizza, service awesome

My husband and I regularly order pizza from Venezia's (at Pecos and McQueen roads, in Chandler) because they have the greatest pizzas. Two weeks ago, we ordered a pizza, and there wound up being a delay in the delivery. After calling them, we were told it would be about 10 minutes. The delivery driver then got lost.

Upon arrival, the driver told us that he could not accept a tip from us under the circumstances. I received a call from the manager, who told me he pulled the initial time of our order and feared that the pizza delivered was cold, and that he had just put another pizza in the oven for us.

Every business makes mistakes. This company has shown that they take customer service very seriously. Did I mention their pizza is awesome?
